

Template:Active_projects

An EiWiki Evaluation Project is a place for a group of registered members to cooperate on developing an evaluation report. Once they decide that they are going to use EiWiki to develop an evaluation report, a base page for the reporting project is created. The discussion pages attached to a project are often used to coordinate changes that take place across texts that make up the report. Read more about EiWiki Evaluation Projects \(here\)