

Narrative contribution:

Narrative:Exploring Scenarios for National Research Priorities

Biographical information:

PhD student Website:[1]

University of Oslo, Norway

PhD in foresight, science and technology studies (STS)

Summary of thesis: File:Summary thesis.pdf

Expectations from the workshop:

I hope to discuss the participants' experiences with foresight in relation to my main interests regarding challenges of participation, especially the inclusion of different expertises, as well as questions of authorship in scenario writing and the evaluation of foresight processes. I am also looking forward to learning about new and up-to-date aspects of foresight practices as well as engaging in the discussions of foresight narratives and the creative and collective activities which will improve them and make them relevant for a wide audience.

Papers:

The Demand for Dialogue (IJFIP, 2007, Vol.3, no.4)[2]

Foresight and Governance (TASM, 2009, Vol 21, no.8)[3]

Municipal Visions (Futures, forthcoming)[4]

Organized conference: Negotiating the Future [5]

Stefanie Jenssen

Born Berlin, Germany

Nationality German

Education PhD in foresight, science and technology studies (STS)

Occupation PhD student

Employer University of Oslo, Norway

Foresight exercises File:Summary thesis.pdf

Foresight papers The Demand for Dialogue (IJFIP, 2007, Vol.3, no.4)[6]

Foresight and Governance (TASM, 2009, Vol 21, no.8)[7]

User:Stefanie_Jenssen

Municipal Visions (Futures, forthcoming)[[8]]

Website

Stefanie Jenssen [[9]] Negotiating the Future [[10]]